The Homework Machine is about four kids: a geek, a class clown, a know-it-all teacher's pet, and a slacker. A most peculiar combination of fifth-graders. In fact, if you mixed together their equivalents in food, you would probably get something resembling the insides of a septic tank. Brenton is an interesting kid: he dresses unlike other people, he parts his hair weird, and he's

The Homework Machine by Dan Gutman - Review | BookPage

What would you do if you were a fifth grader facing a huge homework load every night, and you found out that there was a machine that would do all the work for you? (Do we even have to ask?) That's the situation presented to Sam, Kelsey, Judy and Brenton in Dan Gutman's entertaining new book for

The Homework Machine - Goodreads

The Homework Machine by Dan Gutman is about four 5th graders with one thing in common: a big secret. Brenton is a genius and has invented, programmed and used a homework machine. When he spills the beans to the other kids at his table, he doesn't know what he has gotten himself into. With the police, parents, and a stalker involved, this could end up much more than a great idea.
